GET READY FOR SPRING

Do all the necessary things to make your place look like it wears a smile to greet the spring season.

But listen! Do not overlook the fact that the most important feature of all in your physical condition. Give yourself due consideration and see if you do not need a good spring tonic and rid your system of all the poisons that may cover during the long winter months. Vitazone, the most powerful of nature's mineral waters, will do the work; the iron and other minerals in Vitazone make it a great tonic and should be used by everybody at this season.

Your neighbor has used it and it did all that was claimed to do and more.
Ask about it. It will do for you what it has done for others.

MEMORIAL SERVICE TO MRS.
DOUGLASS

At a meeting of the Woman's Guild of the Presbyterian Church, Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rutledge Smith, a short and impressive service was held to the memory of Mrs. Avo Douglass, who was a much beloved and honored member of the Guild.

Mrs. Smith had asked that this service be held in her home and after the business of the Guild was disposed of, the president, Mrs. Wilson turned the meeting over to Mrs.
Smith, who told many little incidents of her association with Mrs. Douglass, how, when in her early married life, and first citizenship in Cookeville, she had found Mrs. Douglass both counsellor and friend; how, when the shadows of death hung over her immediate family, it was Mrs.
Douglass' comforting words and sweet, placid face with her bright, hopeful smile who had offered the greatest balm. Mrs. Smith spoke of the great motherly spirit, her love and patience with little children, how her grandchildren looked to her and how by her very motherliness to all her children she taught young mothers the beauty of motherhood. As a member of the church, Mrs. Douglass by her faithful attendance and readiness to do in the Master's cause, inspired Christian zeal in others. She was always a spiritual as well as a financial help, encouraging the young women to study the teachings of the grand women who were out in the work of humanity that there might be some left upon whom their man-dles might fall worthily.

Mrs. Douglass was a woman loved by all who knew her and it was a fitting and most beautiful tribute that the women of the Guild paid her.
Solomon's perfect woman, described in the last proverb was read by Miss Laura Copeland, and it seemed to have been written about Mrs.
Douglass, so well did it describe her life. After a prayer by Mrs. Coyle, the service was closed in the singing of "Blest be the Tie that Binds." It was a sad sweet service, and those who were present felt the benediction of the hallowed presence of her in whose memory it was held. The verbal flowers that were laid at her feet that day will shed a perfume as an incense over the lives of those who were present. She was a noble woman with a noble purpose, a mother and a Christian friend.

RAILWAY STRIKE MENACE

To top the climax in the crisis through which this country is passing, the four great Railway Brotherhoods have announced that unless an agreement is reached, in regard to the 8 hour day controversy, a general strike or walkout will take place Saturday night beginning at 6 p. m. eastern time.

It seems that the Brotherhoods are determined to have the 8-hour day standard in spite of what it may cost, or who may suffer from the effects of a general strike.

Patriotism should dictate to these men that this is no time for them to bring such a menace face to face with our country. At least the welfare of the people should be respected.
